When violet eyes get brighter

And heavy wings grow lighter

I'll taste the sky and feel alive again

And I'll forget the world that I knew

But I swear I won't forget you

Oh if my voice could reach back through the past

I'll whisper in your ear

Oh darling I wish you were here

Phatik reached Kolkata with his uncle. He met his aunt for the first time. She was not happy seeing Phatik. Her own three boys were difficult to manage. Phatik soon realized that he was an unwelcome guest at his aunt's house. His cousins mocked at him and his aunt always found fault with him. Even in his new school, Phatik was the most backward boy. He stared and remained silent when the teacher asked him a question. He was caned almost daily. While the other boys were playing in the evening, he would think of his village home. He would stand sadly by the window, and gaze at the roofs of distant houses. His heart asked to go back to his villages.
